

JOB OPENING

Human Resources Manager

Are you looking for an opportunity to energize people and make a difference?

HR Manager needed immediately to champion change and develop organizational effectiveness in support of our fast paced and growing service company. Become an advocate for our team to help us be "the best that we can be" as we focus on delivering memorable experiences for our customers. As an up and coming strategic partner, successful candidate must be able to develop and drive HR initiatives that support our mission, vision and values.

Attention to detail is critical for the HR administration responsibilities (including payroll processing). The more you learn about our business, the more you'll have the opportunity to develop job analyses, create new professional development programs for technical and administrative staff and actively drive our corporate culture.

Key competencies include business savvy, demonstrated understanding of metrics and the ability to communicate throughout the entire organization from our CEO to our front-line employees.
